UNIFIED CRIMINAL COURT
SITTING AT WISCASSET
Docket No.: CR-2025-576

STATE OF MAINE
Plaintiff

V.

JAMES CLARK
Defendant

EMERGENCY
MOTION FOR RELEASE
OF IMPOUNDED ARREST
WARRANT AND INITIAL DETERMINATION OF PROBABLE CAUSE

NOW COMES James Clark by and through counsel, Andrew Wright, and hereby respectfully moves this Honorable Court to order the release of the impounded arrest warrant and initial determination of probable cause to counsel as follows:

1. The Defendant has been charged with Murder.
2. At the time the State submitted the Arrest Warrant on August 15, 2025, the Defendant was not in custody. The Defendant has since been apprehended in Volusia County Florida on said warrant. Furthermore, according to the Volusia County Public Defender's Office, the Defendant waived extradition to Maine on August 20, 2025.
3. Given the typical exceedingly slow pace of discovery production from the Homicide Division of the Office of the Attorney General, it is important that Counsel have near immediate access to the basic filings in this matter. The Defendant is not looking to un-impound the information, rather it seeks that this information be released to Counsel now. The order currently allows the release pending an initial appearance. Due Process obviously begins at the onset of the case, especially since the client has already been arrested on the Fugitive charge. Hindering access to the affidavit during this crucial period would constitute a significant violation of the Defendant's Due Process Rights.

WHEREFORE, the Defendant, by and through the undersigned counsel, for the above mentioned reasons, hereby respectfully moves this Honorable Court to order the above motion

Dated at Brunswick, Maine. Augsut 21, 2025.
