

STATE OF MAINE

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT
SITTING as the Law Court
Docket No. CUM-2024-82

PETER AND KATHY MASUCCI,	)
et al.,	)
	)
Plaintiffs/Appellants,	)	OBJECTION TO APPELLANTS'
	)	MOTION RE: ORAL ARGUMENT
v.	)
	)
JUDY'S MOODY LLC, et al.,	)	(Title to Real Estate Involved)
Defendants/Appellees.	)

Defendants/Appellees OA 2012 Trust and Judy's Moody LLC object to the request of those Appellants represented by Archipelago (Peter Masucci, Kathy Masucci and William Connerney) for the court to expand the time periods of oral argument beyond 15 minutes per side.

The three appellants consist of those parties represented by Archipelago (Peter Masucci, Kathy Masucci and William Connerney), Orlando Delogu pro se and the Office of the Maine Attorney General. The four appellees consist of Judy's Moody LLC, Ocean 503 LLC, OA 2012 Trust and those parties represented by Verrill. Only the appellants represented by Archipelago seek an enlargement of time for oral argument. No other party supports the request.

While the appendix may be lengthy (primarily due to what is required to be contained therein) and there are numerous briefs, the issues are not complex and have been fully briefed. The absence of any other party joining in Archipelago's request is indicative that the time allotted for oral argument is sufficient in this appeal.

Defendants/Appellees OA 2012 Trust and Judy's Moody LLC respectfully request that Archipelago represented Appellants' motion be denied as to expanding the time periods of each parties' oral argument.
